Bath. Maine, News
Jewish Advocate (1909-1990); Oct 26, 1934;
ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Jewish Advocate (1905-1990)
pg. A6

Mrs. Joseph I. Smith has returned from a visit to Boston While there she attended Eugene O'Neill's comedy, "Ah, Wilderness."

Among those attending the 32nd annual convention of the Maine Teachers' Association in Portland on Thursday and Friday, October 25 and 26, are Miss Mary Brown, teacher in the Dike school, and Miss Bessie F. Greenblatt, principal of Weeks street school.

Mrs. Louis M. Silverman recently entertained the sewing circle of Roland Smith Unit No. 21, American Legion Auxiliary, at her home. Mrs. Silverman served last year as vice-president of the unit.

Members of the B'nai B'rith motored to Portland on Wednesday evening, October 17, to attend the first fall meeting of the Portland Lodge. A smoker and entertainment were enjoyed.

Marcia L. Petlock and Esther J. Petlock left Sunday to spend a few days in Boston as guests of their brother, Louis Petlock, and Mrs. Petlock, of Mattapan.

Miss Jeannette Miller is enjoying two weeks in New York City as the guest of her brother, Arthur Z., and Mrs. Miller. En-route to New York, she stopped in Boston for the week-end as a guest of her sister, Doris F. Miller, at the Franklin Square House.

Mrs. Joseph I. Smith and Mrs. David S. Cogan attended the 15th annual convention of the Maine Congress of Parents and Teachers, Inc., in Augusta early this month.

One of the two Morse high school seniors, in a class of 100, earning highest honors for the first ranking period, which has just closed, is Miss Ruth E. Cohen, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Cohen.

Miss Ruth Cogan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Cogan, entertained on Saturday evening, October 13, with a party in celebration of her 10th birthday. Among those present were Rhoda Kutz, Ida Rena Cohen, Riva Civia Greenblatt, Eleanor Gediman, and Edward Cogan.

On the committee for the National Honor Society dance on Friday evening, October 19, was Mrs. David S. Cogan. Miss Ruth E. Cohen assisted the committee during the evening.

Miss Bessie F. Greenblatt and Mrs. Joseph I. Smith were among the readers of Henrik Ibsen's "A Doll House" at a meeting recently held in the Cosmopolitan Club for the reading of the play. Mrs. Smith is president of the Cosmopolitan Players, drama department of the club, succeeding Miss Greenblatt, who resigned in the spring.

Rev. Samuel Pinsky spent several days recently in New York City as a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pinsky.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Cohen and family, Mr. Cohen's brother, David S. Cogan, Mrs. Cogan and family were recently in Rockland as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Isidore Gordon.

Miss Sadie Silverman, Miss Eunice Cohen, both of Portsmouth, N. H., and Mrs. M. Bergman, of Bangor, were recent guests of Mrs. Louis M. Silverman.

Bath. Maine, News

A harvest dance will be held in the vestry of Beth Israel Synagogue on Sunday evening, October 28, under the auspices of the Hebrew Ladies' Society. Many out-of-town guests are expected. The program will include a prize waltz. The committee includes Mrs. Samuel Korolick, chairman; Mmes. Max Kutz, Morris S. Povich, David S. Cogan, Joseph I. Smith, and Miss Bessie F. Greenblatt.

A meeting was held Wednesday evening, October 23, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Cogan to make plans for the second annual minstrel show by the young people of the community.

Mrs. Samuel Levin passed a few days in Boston last week on business.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.