WORK COMMENCED AT HEBREW COLONY

D. W. Bishop, the contractor, who is to build the hotel at Cook's corner for a Hebrew colony of Boston, has commenced work and at present has a crew of 24 men employed there. Several houses on the land purchased by the Hebrews have been moved to other locations and work has begun on the foundation for the hotel. This is to be a one story affair, long and narrow, containing 52 rooms.
