

LOU MASON PROVES FINE ENTERTAINER AT THE SYNAGOGUE

Bath B'Nai B'rith Lodge And Chapter Hosts For The Evening

The Bath B'nai B'rith Lodge and chapter were hosts Tuesday last week at the Beth Israel synagogue to the Beth Israel congregation and to the Rockland B'nai B'rith Lodge members and friends when Lou Mason of New York, well known Jewish humorist of stage and radio, entertained his audience with a program of wit and humor.

Mr. Mason, who was born in Montreal, came to the United States at a nearly age. He attended the Yeshiva College and is a graduate of the Jewish Teachers Institute of New York. He has been with the RKO since the age of 18, now being a representative of Cavalcade of Jewish Wit and Humor, and has worked with such artists as Franz Porgar, hypnotist, Larry Best, Samuel Levinson and Jennie Goldstein, Jewish humorists, and has proved to be a one-man show, being well able to keep his audience in laughter throughout the whole evening. Mr. Mason is now traveling throughout the country entertaining the B'nai B'rith lodges and chapters—bringing laughter and joy to the hearts of all. His wit, charm, manner of delivery and humor will be long remembered by those who have had the pleasure of hearing him. More recently he has spoken at the Hillel Foundation at the University of Maine where students from Bates College, Colby College and the University of Maine were highly entertained with his witticisms and humor. Mr. Mason also addressed the Gardiner and Waterville B'nai B'rith groups this week and Wednesday evening spoke in Bangor.

The program was sponsored by the B'nai B'rith Northeastern New England Council and Mr. Mason was introduced by Louis Silverman of Bath, first vice president of the council, who with Abraham Kramer president of the local lodge and Miss Ada Y. Greenblatt, president of the local chapter, were in charge of arrangements for the evening.

Following Mr. Mason's address, refreshments were served in the vestry by the Bath chapter. The committee in charge of refreshments was Mrs. Louis Silverman, chairman; assisted by Mrs. Arthur Gediman, Miss Sophie Mikels, Mrs. Jacob Smith, Mrs. Sam Levine, Mrs. Sam Praver, Mrs. Abraham Kramer and Miss Ada Y. Greenblatt. Also assisting was Mrs. Louis Petlock of the Beth Israel Ladies' society. Mrs. Allan Grossman, Mrs. Sam Savitt and Mrs. Saul Sulkovitch, all of Rockland and Miss Ada Y. Greenblatt poured. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Allan Grossman, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Savitt and Mr. and Mrs. Saul Sulkovitch of Rockland.

At the close of the evening the hope was expressed by those attending that they would again have the pleasure of hearing Mr. Mason in the near future.
