Sessions*

The shade of the old oak tree provides the setting for the study of Hebrew. Campers are divided into small homogeneous groupings under the guidance of dedicated teachers. The relaxed mood makes study enjoyable.

A relaxing moment during a discussion on the contribution of Judaism to the freedom of mankind. Groups review Jewish topics and history through cultural presentations utilizing dramatics, song and dance, arts and crafts and films. Our rich reference library is used frequently by eager campers.

Religious worship at outdoor services inspire campers of all ages. Weekday and Sabbath services are conducted by the campers themselves who increase their fluency in reading prayers and master many traditional melodies.

Candles are lit and the Sabbath welcomed as the sun sets in the blaze of a glorious sunset at Camp Lown.

Israeli folk singing and dancing provide campers with a wonderful opportunity for free expression

Busy hands create souvenirs using ceramics, leather, wood, metal, etc in Camp Lown's popular Arts and Crafts Department.

Everyone enjoys Camp Lown's Little Theater group presentations — the applause matches the actors' efforts.

Camper Development Program

CAMPER WAITER

Campers who have COMPLETED THE NINTH GRADE in school and have PASSED their FOURTEENTH birthday are eligible to become camper waiters. They will follow a regular activity schedule, modified to their age group and complementing camper waiter duties.

STAFF-AIDE

Campers who have COMPLETED THEIR SOPHOMORE YEAR (10th grade) and have celebrated their FIFTEENTH birthday are eligible to become Staff Aides. Staff Aides are assigned to various camp departments or program specialists, i.e., arts and crafts, athletics, waterfront, dramatics, camp office, infirmary, dance, etc. These assignments may be on a permanent or rotating basis. A Staff Aide's duties include those of a camper waiter.

COUNSELOR IN TRAINING

A Counselor In-Training is a previous Low ment camper who has completed the JUNIOR YEAR of high school (11th grade) and has PASSED his SIXTEENTH BIRTHDAY. C.I.T.'s are assigned to live with a younger bunk group to help the counselors in the cabin. A study program and camper waiter duties are included in this category.
