

The Hebrew colony in this city religiously observed Yom Yupper or the day of atonement from Wednesday night at sunset until the corresponding period Thursday night. The services were held at the Y. M. C. A. and during the period all business was suspended.