

The last rehearsal of the Mendelssohn club before the music festival in Portland next week was held Tuesday evening. At its conclusion the members were entertained with a phonograph concert by Miss Sophia Mikelsky who had a big machine there and the songs of many famous soloists were heard to advantage.