HEBREWS FORM

Workman's Circle Installing, day, Officials in Texas Cit On Sunday afternoon, the members of the Hebrew Association under the name of the "Workman's Circle," inaugurated their branch, No. 546, in Bath. The ceremonies took place at the rooms of the Texas Club at 3:45 p.m. and lasted until 6:30 p.m. At this time, the officers of the local branch were installed and were as follows:

Chalrman. Samuel A. Gilberg: E

Chairman, Samuel

The business meeting was followed by a period of entertainment, including the singing of "America," led by Axel D. Wilson; plano and violin duet by Miss Mikelsky and Mr. Skivensky, with a vocal solo by Mr. Wilson. This was followed by a short comedy sketch by local talent. The following is a list of the delegates from the prominent cities of Maine:

c o ti

t g Ē n R

a unuel A. Gilberg; Harry Aramstam;

vice chairman, Harry Aramstam; financial secretary, Charles Arik, (Habbi); recording secretary, Israel Schafer; treasurer, Charles M. Mil-gates from the prominent cities of Maine:

Max Baron, Harry Shaffer, Joseph Shore, Morris Seltzer, Harry Day, a Morris Shatz, Henry Bean, David Shelar, Solomon Shanliman, Jacob Rosinsky, Louis Zoltzman, Kalmon Farman, Harry Koir.

At the close of the afternoon entertainment there was an intermission of about two hours, during which time the banquet for the evening was prepared.

which time the banquet for the evening was prepared.

The evening entertainment was opened with a speech by the toastmaster, A. A. Glick, who is very popular among the members of the origanization. The banquet followed and was served in style that was worthy of praise. The courses having been served, the various delegates from out of town were called upon to speak. The speakers were unsually clever in delivering their speeches and were highly applauded by the members.

Later the members were enter-speeches and were highly applauded by the members.

Later the members were entertained by a program of high class talent consisting of Mr. Hickey, pianist; Mr. Wilson, vocalist; Mrs. Gilbert, who sang a very interesting song in Russian; Mr. McLean, and Mr. Wienberg. There were various solos, and sketches, among which was a song by Mr. Cohen, "America I Love You," sung in the Hebrew tongue.

Credit should be given to Mr. Wienberg, who was the active promoter of the entertainment and who was one of the members of a fine quartet.

Toward the close of the program,

Toward the close of the program, the sum of twenty dollars was contributed to the Jewish Relief Fund.

Among the invited guests were Charles W. Laing, president of the Texas Club, and Mr. Gilboy, secretary of the latter organization, both of whom expressed their appreciation of the affair and of the select class of people present.

The program was brought to a close at about 11:00 p.m.