JEWISH WAR RELIEF DRIVE PROMISES TO EXCEED BATH QUOTA

Committee Raises Nearly $100

at Band Concert in

Brunswick

Over the top with double the quota the slogan of the Bath branch of is the slogan the Jewish War Relief association and judging by the way the committees the Jewish War Relief association and judging by the way the committees are working and the reports received up to noon Friday, this is what is going to happen. When Bath Hebrews went into this campaign they went in to win. They may not be shooting bullets at the Huns, but they are raising the cash to help the boys at the front who are doing that trick and that those boys may be able to continue their good work, the local Hebrews are bound to may work, the local Hebrews are bound to w. I do the The their part.

The committee headed by Mayor Drake, John E. Fitzgerald and Hon. Mayor E. W. Hyde is rapidly organizing, and the final days of the campaign will be a drive for the amount needed to send the total over as it should go. Bath citizens, both Jews and Gentiles, are ready to help the cause and every subscription will be needed and every cent paid will help the boys over on the firing lines.

Last night 30 young men and en boarded automobiles and w boarded automobiles and Brunswick for the b wo men went to Brunswick for the band concert on the Mall, and during the evening, by using tag day methods, raised $90 for the cause

Harry Cohen, Ch. irman the of 10cal Hebrew committee, delivered a brief addres from the bandstand pri-or to the making of the collection, and his appeal was greeted with much applause and a ready response in cash.
