

The star of David which was among the decorations on the float of the YMHA, YWHA and Jewish Welfare board in Tuesday's parade was made by the women of the two latter societies and was a fine bit of work. The YMHA and the YWHA are among the newest of Bath societies and made a fine showing in the parade with their handsomely decorated float and the automobiles following in which were the women members of the YWHA and the Jewish Welfare board.