

OBITUARY

ANNA L. PETLOCK

Wife of Nathan Petlock Dies Suddenly Sunday Morning

Anna Leah Petlock, 62, wife of Nathan Petlock, died suddenly early Sunday morning at her home, 22 Franklin street. She had been in ill health for a number of years, and death followed a shock.

Mrs. Petlock was born in Zezmer, Lithuania, one of seven children of Abraham and Libby Hurwitz. Leaving Russia, she came to Bath in June, 1907, and had since made her home here. Mr. and Mrs. Petlock observed their 42nd wedding anniversary last August. She was a member of the Hebrew Ladies' society of Beth Israel synagogue.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Petlock is survived by seven children: Louis, of Mattapan, Mass.; Mrs. Morris H. Cohen, Miss Marcia L., Morris M., Jacob, Miss Evelyn and Miss Esther J., all of this city; by one sister, Mrs. Bessie Elinsky of Zezmer; by three brothers, Max Hurwitz of New York City, Jacob of Boston and Barney of Mattapan; and by five grandchildren: Ruth E., Edward P., Ida Rena and Sylvia Cohen, all of this city, and Sylvia Petlock of Mattapan.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon in Portland largely attended by the Jewish community of this city, as well as that of Portland and Brunswick. Jacob Hurwitz and Louis Petlock joined the family in Portland for the funeral, the latter coming to Bath for the week. Burial was in Mount Sinai cemetery, Portland.