

ENJOYABLE RECEPTION AT BETH ISRAEL

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Levin Entertain Large Gathering in Honor of Their Son Robert D. Levin

One of the most enjoyable occasions held in years at the Beth Israel synagogue was the reception tendered Sunday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Levin of 10 North street for their son, Robert Daniel Levin, in honor of his Bar Mitzvah on Saturday. The Bar Mitzvah ceremony on Saturday forenoon was well attended, and the young man received many compliments for his fine address.

Despite the severe storm Sunday evening, more than 100 were present not only from Bath, but also from Bangor, Brunswick, Lewiston, Lisbon Falls and Portland. The vestry of the synagogue was attractively decorated with white and blue paper streamers and with bouquets of flowers. A buffet supper was served, and there was dancing.

During the evening young Mr. Levin gave a splendid address, and other speakers were also heard, among them Rabbi May, who recently came here from Canada. There were vocal solos by Morris H. Cohen and by Benjamin S. Gediman.

Young Mr. Levin, whose parents own the Bath Department Store, was presented with many beautiful and useful gifts. He is a pupil in the seventh grade of North Grammar school. Out of town guests present for the evening included Mrs. Cyrus Schiro of Bangor; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Abelon, Miss Esther Abelon, Israel Abelon, Mr. and Mrs. Max H. Singer, Mrs. Goldie Singer, Joseph L. Singer, of Brunswick; Mr. and Mrs. John Bramson, Miss Gwendolyn Bramson, Dr. and Mrs. Brownstone, Miss Thelma Goldstein, Mrs. William Goldstein, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Levin, Robert Levin, Abraham Singer, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Supovitz, Warren Supovitz, all of Lewiston, Mr. and Mrs. Morris C. Robinson, of Lisbon Falls; Mrs. Jacob Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farber, David Farber, and Mrs. Ethel Farber, all of Portland. The young man's brothers, Jesse H. Levin, a junior at Bowdoin college, and William D. Levin, a freshman at the Dental school of Tufts college, home for the occasion.
