

HEBREW LADIES' SOCIETY INSTALLS OFFICERS

Mrs. Sam Praver was installed president, Mrs. Samuel Levin, vice president, Mrs. Joseph I. Smith, secretary, and Mrs. Jacob Smith, treasurer, at a meeting of the Hebrew Ladies Society, held in Beth Israel Synagogue Thursday evening. Mrs. Morris S. Povich was chairman of the installation committee, and Harold J. Rubin was installing officer. Mrs. Morris Povich, Mrs. Max Kutz, Mrs. David S. Cogan and Mrs. Louis Petlock were installed trustees.

Mrs. Sam Korolick, retiring president, was presented a corsage. She was also presented a gift from the society, because she is leaving town. Rabbi and Mrs. Abraham May who are to reside in the city, were given a welcome gift. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joseph I. Smith and Mrs. Louis Petlock. There was a large attendance.
