

BETH ISRAEL JUNIORS PRESENT THEIR PLAY

Excellent Performance of 'Purim- Hi-Jinx' Given in the Vestry Tuesday Evening

As entertaining a play as has ever been given in Beth Israel vestry was the Purim play "Purim Hi-Jinx" presented by the Junior Council of Beth Israel Tuesday evening. The three act play, written by Elliot M. Burstein, was coached by Miss Mary Arik, secretary of the club. The play was followed by dancing, music being furnished by Henry I. Gedman, playing the guitar, Clayton Holden, the piano, and Foster Pratt, the saxophone. The vestry was well filled for the occasion, guests from Freeport, Portland, Lewiston, and Augusta joining those from Bath.

The cast was composed of the following: Abasuerus, King of Persia, Harold J. Rubin; Vashti, Queen of Persia, Miss Evelyn Petlock; Jester, Edward B. Cohen; Haman, Alec Miller; Zeresh, Miss Esther J. Petlock; Mordecai, Abraham E. Greenblatt; Esther, Miss Mary Arik; Chamberlain, Miss Sophie G. Greenblatt; Biethan, a conspirator, Miss Ada Y. Greenblatt; Theresh, a conspirator, Jack Petlock; Courtier, Edward S. Gedman; candidates for the queen, Miss Ida Lindenburg, Miss Sarah Lindenburg, Miss Emily M. Gedman.
