

LODGE AND AUXILIARY INSTALL OFFICERS

Ceremony Takes Place Thursday Evening in Vestry of Beth Israel Synagogue

Officers of the B'nai Brith lodge and B'nai Brith Auxiliary, No. 248, were installed Thursday evening in the vestry of Beth Israel Synagogue, the degree team from Twin-City lodge of Lewiston inducting the officers of both organizations.

The following new lodge members were initiated by the degree team: Oscar Fine, Morris Fineman, Samuel Fuher, Dr. William Fradkin, Dr. Ernest Moss.

William Cohen, president of the degree team of Twin City lodge, was installing officer, and with him were Murray Shultz, vice president; Charles Siegal, monitor; I. A. Miller, president elect of Twin City lodge, assistant monitor; Philip Flock, retiring president, warden; Edward Winner, secretary; Isaac Alpert, treasurer; Jack Stackowitz, assistant warden; Henry Cohen, pianist.

Lodge officers installed were Abraham L. Kramer, a past president of Cumberland lodge, Portland, as president, Rev. Abraham May, vice president; Oscar Fine, secretary; Samuel Praver, treasurer; Dr. Jacob Smith, retiring president, monitor; Louis Petlock, Morris H. Cohen, Samuel Levin, trustees.

Auxiliary officers installed are as follows: Miss Ada Y. Greenblatt, president; Miss Mary Arik, vice president; Miss Minnie Brown, secretary; Miss Emily Gediman, treasurer; Miss Evelyn Petlock, retiring president, monitress; Miss Jeanette Miller, sentinell; Miss Esther J. Petlock, guide, Mrs. Morris H. Cohen, guardian; Mrs. David S. Cogan, Mrs. Max Kutz, Mrs. Samuel Levin, trustees.

Miss Petlock, able retiring president of the Auxiliary was presented a shoulder corsage of gardenias and roses as a gift from the Auxiliary, Mrs. Isadore Singer making the presentation.

Following the installation refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Levin. Those assisting her included Mrs. Cogan, Mrs. Jacob Goldstein and Miss Evelyn Petlock.