COHEN-LEBEWOHL WEDDING SUNDAY AT BETH ISRAEL Flight Officer in U.S.

Air Force Takes a Bride

The marriage of Flight Officer Edward B. Cohen USAAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cohen of Old South Place, and Miss Annette Lebewohl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Lebewohl of Framingham, Mass., was solemized at the Beth Israel Synagogue on Washington street, Sunday afternoon at 5.30, in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends. Kenneth Weeks, violinist, played the Wedding March from Lohen-presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends. Kenneth Weeks, violinist, played the Wedding March from Lohengrin, and at the conclusion of the impressive ceremony, Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The solemn ring service of the Hebrew ritual was performed with much dignity by Rabbi Greenbaum of Portland.

The bride was attired most becomingly in a suit of fuchsia wool crepe and wore silver accessories. She carried a Hebrew Bible on which were placed white orchids. She was escorted to the canopy under which the ceremony was performed, by her father and mother, and had as her matron of honor, Mrs. David Cogan, who was gowned in a lovely blue crepe, with a corsage of red roses. Miss Ruth D. Cohen was the maid of honor, and wore a dress of purple wool jersey, adorned with beautiful gold flowers. The groom was escorted to the canopy by his parents and was attended by David Cogan as best man.

and was attended by David Cogan as best man.

Following the impressive ceremony, a reception was held in the hall of the Synagogue. There were many guests from out of town. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Morris Lebewohl of Framingham, Mass., the parents of the bride. They were accompanied by the bride's grandnother, Mrs. Etta Malinsk of New York City. The grandfather of the bride, Abraham Lebewohl, came from Framingham, Mass. Two aunts of the bride, the Misses Esther and Rose Malinak came from New York City and the groom's sister, Miss Ida Cohen, of the H.A.1/c and stationed at the Naval Hospital at Norfolk, Virginia, came home for the occasion. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Sames and Mrs. Sames and Mrs. Paraelia. gan casion. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lebewohl of Brookline, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Irving Siegal of Providence. R. I. Many friends of this city were in the audience, which filled the Synagogue. After the reception, Flight Officer Cohen and his bride left for an undesignated point, where they plan to spend a brief honeymoon.