

GREENBLATT-SILVERMAN WEDDING SUNDAY AT OLD ORCHARD BEACH

Bath Young Man Weds Portland Young Lady and Reception Follows

The marriage of Abraham Eli Greenblatt and Sarah Anne Silverman was solemnized Sunday evening at six at the Beth Israel Synagogue at Old Orchard Beach in an impressive and beautiful ceremony. Rabbi David Berent of Lewiston officiated, assisted by Rev. M. Neiss. The altar was banked with white roses, carnations, and gladioli, and the ceremony took place under a canopy decorated with roses and carnations.

The bride wore traditional white satin en train, and her fingertip length veil of lace-edged tulle fell from a coronet of seed-pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

The maid of honor, Rachel Silverman, sister of the bride, wore ice blue satin and net with matching long gloves. Her coronet was of red roses and she carried a nosegay of red and white roses. The best man was Isear W. Greenblatt, brother of the groom.

The bride's mother wore aqua crepe with a corsage of red and white roses. The groom's mother wore turquoise crepe with a corsage of purple orchids.

Following the ceremony, a reception, dinner and dance was held at the Lafayette Hotel, with 150 guests present. A beautiful tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride.

Those attending from Bath were, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt, Miss Ada Y. Greenblatt, Isear W. Greenblatt, Miss Riva-Civia Greenblatt, Owen Lee Greenblatt, Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Singer, Miss Anne Singer, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Silverman.

Relatives and friends of the young couple were present from Maine, Massachusetts, New York, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, New Hampshire and Canada. Telegrams were received from those unable to attend.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Silverman of Montreal street, Portland. A graduate of Portland High school, she has been employed as secretary in the office of the Reliable Furniture Company of Portland.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt of Bath. He was in the Seabees for nearly three years, over two years of which were spent in the Pacific. At the time of his honorable discharge he was a C.P.O. He is a graduate of Morse High school and at the time of his induction into the service was employed as leading man in the New England Shipbuilding Corporation of South Portland.

Upon their return from their honeymoon in the White Mountains Mr. Greenblatt will open his new wallpaper and paint store in Bath where they will make their home.
