MEMORIAL TABLET DEDICATED AT BETH ISRAEL SYNAGOGUE

Tablet In Memory Of Nathan And Rosa Povich And Son Morris

1

ń

E.

A memorial tablet was dedicated Sunday evening at eight at the Beth Israel Synagogue in memory of Nathan and Rosa Povich and son, Morris. The tablet was donated by the Povich family.

Mr. and Mrs. Povich were in-Mr. and Mrs. Povich were in-strumental in organizing and founding the local synagogue and were ardent workers for it during their lifetime. Their son, Morris, lost his life in an untimely automobile accident.

The tablet is east in bronze The tablet is east in bronze and is illuminated with 80 bulbs. Names and dates of those in whose memory it was given are engraved on the s beading. There is space for 80 Il name plates with a light at each plate so that other members of the congregation may commemorate the memory of their departed ones.

A memorial service was held

d at which the tablet was dedi-e cated. Rabbi David Berent of the Lewiston Synagogue conducted the service and delivered an inspiring address. The service was: Invocation Rabbi David Berent
Memorial Sermon

Rabbi David Berent Unveiling of Tablet, Mrs. Morris S. Povich and Bernard Povich

Povich
Presentation Jay Povich
Acceptance Jacob Goldstein Refreshments were served in the vestry.
Present from out of town of were Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin P. Mensh. son, Nathan, and daughter, Marcia, Mr. and Mrs.
Abe Povich and sons, Larry and Ronald, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Povich. sons, David and Maurice daughter, Lynn. Bernard Povich of Washington, D.
C., Misses Goldie and Celia Povich. Cambridge, Mass., Mr.
and Mrs. Alfred Baumberg, Brookline, Mass., Mrs. Abraham
Shwartz, Newton, Mass., Mrs.
Harry E. Davis, Mr. and Mrs.
Ralph Lamport, Mrs., Alex
Miller, Portland.