This work was composed from the 1900, 1910, and 1920 censuses in which the father (and mother) was born in Russia. One father was b. in Prussia

We cannot say that all these families were Jewish.

Russia (1871-1914) included Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, and most of Poland

Nearly all the Jews who have died in Bath have been buried in Portland - South Portland

Reading records has been occasionally difficult: interpretations of the data are sometimes questionable.
