SOBOTKY—ANDREWS.

With only members of the families and a few relatives present, the marriage of Miss Wilhelmina Banus Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Andrews of Winthrop road, Brookline, to Dr. Irving Sobotky, took place Tuesday mornig at Hotel Somerset. The ceremony, performed by Rabbi Solomon Schindler, was in the library, and later a wedding breakfast was served in the adjoining breakfast room. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a simple gown of delicate white material. She was unattended, and Dr. Sobotky dispensed with the service of the customary best man. Following breakfast, the bridal pair, Mrs. Sobotky in a white serge travelling gown and black and white hat, motored to the dock to sail for Europe on the steamship Franconia. In other autos the few who had been present at the wedding accompanied them to the boat to see them started. They will be abroad for about four months. The bride is a graduate of the Gilman School and only child of Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, the latter prominent as president of the Council of Jewish Women.

Dr. Sobotky is a graduate of Amherst, class of '03, and of the Harvard Medical School, '07, and he is a member of Beta Theta Chi. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Sobotky of Boston, formerly of Northampton.
