

Bath. Me.. News Notes

By Sophie G. Greenblatt

Mrs. Max Cohen of Albany, N. Y., formerly Miss Lena Mikelsky of Bath, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Lewis Mikelsky, and sister, Miss Pauline Mikelsky. Mr. Cohen, who came to Bath with her, has returned to Albany.

Edward P. Cohen returned Sunday after passing a month at Camp William Hinds, Boy Scout camp at Panther Pond.

Philip Gold of Portland was a business visitor on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris H. Cohen and daughters, Ida, Sylvia and Ruth, the last named employed at Poland Spring House for the summer, motored to Panther Pond on Sunday for Edward P. Cohen, who returned after passing a month at Camp William Hinds.

Miss Minnie Brown of Augusta passed the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Harry Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bornstein and infant daughter, Faith, of Augusta, and Mr. Bornstein's brother, Paul Bornstein of Auburn, visited friends and relatives here on Saturday.

Miss Ada Y. Greenblatt of 233 Washington street resumed her duties as secretary in the real estate and insurance office of Roger D. Skillings on Monday morning, after a two weeks' vacation passed in Boston and Roxbury with relatives.

Mrs. Louis M. Silverman and daughter, Sarah, were among those whose exhibits at the second annual flower show of the Cosmopolitan Garden Club received firsts and seconds in the awards.

Samuel Korolick was a member of the committee in charge of a banquet tendered by the Congress Shirt Co. employees to Mayor Arthur Sewall and members of the special committee representing the city in taking steps to retain the Congress Shirt Co. in Bath. President and Mrs. Julius Grossman were among those seated at the head table, as were Mr. and Mrs. Korolick. Henry Gedinan's Rhythm Band furnished music during the banquet and later for dancing.

Miss Eleanor R. Gedinan of Wild Rose Troup, No. 2, has rejoined her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Gedinan, after passing two weeks at Camp Wyeonda, Girl Scout Camp at Belgrade Lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Singer and infant daughter, Anne Riva, were in Lisbon Falls on Monday, when they visited Mr. Singer's sister, Mrs. Morris C. Robinson, and Mr. Robinson.

William Singer of Portland was an overnight guest last Thursday of his brother, Isadore Singer.

Mrs. Max Klatzkin, daughter, Edith Miriam, and son, Oscar Abraham, returned Monday after passing a week in Malden, Mass., with Mrs. Klatzkin's mother, Mrs. Sarah Weitzman. Mrs. Klatzkin was formerly Miss Anna Weitzman, of Malden.