

BAR HARBOR, ME.

Povich—Povich.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place Tuesday when Miss Eva Povich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Povich, was united in marriage to Maurice S. Povich of Bath, at the Kindergarten Hall on Ledgelawn Ave. The ceremony was witnessed by many friends and relatives of both parties, and was performed by Rabbi Shohet of Bangor. The hall was neatly decorated with various kinds of flowers and ferns. The bride was given in marriage by her father; her aunt, Mrs. J. Solovitch, acting as matron of honor; Mr. J. Solovitch, uncle of the bride, as best man; while Miss Ida Povich acted as bridesmaid. Among the out of town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Solovitch and daughters Goldie and Cella, Mr. Simon Povich and Miss Goldie Chapnick, all of Bath; Mr. M. Povich and daughters Ida and Goldie, of Ellanorth; Misses Frances Richardson, Jennie Kaminsky, Edith Lipsky, Ray Dennis, Fannie Ginsberg and Mrs. D. Goldberg of Bangor; Mr. Abram Greenberg of Jonesport, and Miss Eva Wasserman of Boston. After a three weeks' trip to New York, Philadelphia and Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Povich will reside at Bath. This is the first Jewish wedding ever witnessed in Bar Harbor.
