The bride's gown was of silver net over white satin with beaded trimmings, and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Eva Mack was maid of honor, and Henry L. Gediman was best man. The ushers were: Arthur and Julius Gediman, brothers of the bride; Jack, William and Samuel Gediman of Boston, and Isaac Pollay of Brunswick. Many out of town guests were present. After an extended trip to Boston and New York, Mr. and Mrs. Mack will reside in this city.
