

BATH, ME.

The Happy Twenty opened its social activities with an enjoyable and successful entertainment and dance which was held at the Parish House on Thursday evening, Dec. 20th. The guests of honor were the entire membership of the local Noami Girls' Club. Members were present from all parts of Maine; Boston was represented by five members, and one member, Jacob Feldman, from Atlanta, Georgia. A collation was served. The success of the affair was due to the social committee, composed of Henry I. Gedlman, Myer Gordon and Horatio A. D. Mikelsky. The officers of the Happy Twenty are: President, Charles Mikelsky; vice-pres., Arthur Gedlman; secy., Charles Stahl, and treas., Arthur Miller.
