

BATH, ME.

The "Happy Twenty" held an enjoyable social gathering last Sunday at the home of Horatio Mikelsky. The Naomi Girls were the guests. It was announced at their meeting that the Happy Twenty had gone "over the top" in its $1000 Liberty Bond campaign. Final results as reported by Herbert W. Gedinan, the president, showed $1050 subscribed by the fourteen active members of the club, an average of $75 per member.
