

Singer-Greenblatt

Miss Bessie Frieda Greenblatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon K. Greenblatt of Bath, Maine, was united in marriage to Isadore Singer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max H. Singer of Brunswick on Thursday, November 29, at a noon ceremony. Rev. Henry L. Rackoff of Portland officiated. Attending the couple were Joseph L. Singer as best man, and Sophie G. Greenblatt as maid of honor. Riva Civia Greenblatt was train bearer.

Included in the party, besides the principals, were the parents of bride and groom and the sponsors of the young couple, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weiner of Roxbury, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Levine of Boston. Bearing the canopy for the service were William Singer of Portland, Abraham E. Greenblatt, Isear W. Greenblatt and Charles I. Levine of Boston.

Mrs. Singer is principal of Weeks Street Grammar School. Mr. Singer is engaged in business in Bath.

Cut of town relatives at the wedding were Samuel Gould, Boston; Mrs. Joseph Brown, Roxbury; Mrs. Morris A. Singer, Portland; Mrs. Morris C. Robinson and daughter, Judith, Lisbon Falls; Miss Goldie Singer, Brunswick; Robert Levine, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Greenblatt and son, Harold, Roxbury.
