NOTICE TO THE BANK.

Instructions to Depositors

It is not necessary that depositors should present their books in order to have their interest added to their deposits. It is done in all cases on the books of the Institution, and the depositor has the full benefit of it, the same as if entered on his book.

Depositors will observe that the times for making up interest are January 1 and July 1. Interest is payable on and after the 10th of said months.

No money will be paid by the Institution without presentation of the depositor's book.

Forms of orders are given in the last part of this book; but in all cases the order must be written on a separate piece of paper. Depositors wishing to withdraw money must send an order, unless they come in person.

Deposits and withdrawals may be made by mail as well as in person.

BY-LAWS

OF THE

BATH SAVINGS INSTITUTION

I. The Annual Meeting of the Corporation shall be held on the THIRD MONDAY OF JULY, at such hour and place as the President or Trustees may appoint, by giving notice thereof in one or more of the newspapers printed in Bath, at least seven days prior thereto. At each Annual Meeting there shall be chosen by ballot a Board of seven Trustees, who shall hold their offices one year, and until others have been chosen and accepted the trust.

Special meetings may be called by the President or Trustees by giving the above notice.

II. The Trustees shall annually choose one of their number President, also they shall choose a Treasurer, and such other officers and agents as the interests of the Institution may require, and may fill all vacancies in any office, or in their own Board, until the next annual election. They shall have the general direction and oversight of the Institution, and shall cause its funds to be prudently and safely invested and the income to be promptly collected.

III. The Treasurer shall give a bond to the Corporation, in such sum as the Trustees may require, with sufficient surety or sureties for the faithful execution of his trust. He shall be ex-officio, Secretary of the Corporation. He shall attend at such times and places as the Trustees may direct, for the purpose of receiving deposits and making payments. He shall keep his accounts in such form as the Trustees may prescribe. On one day of every week he shall make an exhibit of the state of the deposits, funds, liabilities and income of the Institution, at that date, which exhibit shall be entered by him in a book for that purpose.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Trustees to hold weekly meetings to examine the exhibits of the Treasurer and to make all investments, a record of which shall be kept on the books of the Institution.

V. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Corporation, and at the meetings of the Trustees, and shall have the general oversight and management of the concerns of the Institution, so far as they are not specially provided for by the Corporation or Trustees.

VI. No officer of the Corporation or member of the Board of Trustees shall be a borrower from the Institution. The compensation of the Treasurer, Assistant Treasurer and other employees shall be fixed by the Trustees.

VII. Every depositor may be required to subscribe to the By-Laws, by himself or agent, thereby signifying his assent to the regulations of the Institution.

VIII. Deposits may be made of any sum not less than one dollar; but no interest will be allowed on any sum less than five dollars, nor on fractional parts of a dollar.

IX. A deposit book shall be given to every depositor in which the several sums deposited by him shall be entered, and which shall be his voucher.

X. On or before the first days of January and July, in each year, there shall be declared by the Trustees, and credited to every deposit account remaining open on the first days of said months, a dividend of interest on all sums then on deposit of five dollars and upward (fractional parts of a dollar excepted), but no interest will be allowed for the fractional part of any month.

XI. Deposits and dividends may be drawn out by the depositor upon the production of his deposit book, or upon his written order, witnessed and accompanied by his deposit book.

XII. No sum less than one dollar shall be drawn out at any time unless it be for a dividend, or the whole sum remaining on deposit shall be less than that amount, and no interest will be allowed on any sum drawn out between dividend days.

XIII. All dividends shall be added at once to the principal deposits.

XIV. Deposits may be made by any persons, without limitations as to residence. The Trustees may decline receiving deposits when they deem it expedient, and may, at their pleasure, repay all or any part of any deposit to the person entitled to receive the same.

XV. Any depositor, with the consent of the Trustees, may designate in writing the time the sum deposited by him shall remain in the Institution, and the person to whom the deposit and dividends thereon shall be payable, and may prescribe any other special conditions of deposit; which directions and conditions shall be observed by the Corporation, subject to the last clause of the fourteenth By-Law, and shall be binding on the depositor and his legal representatives.

XVI. Upon the death of any depositor or other person entitled to receive any deposit, the amount standing to the credit of said depositor or other person shall be paid to his legal representatives, and if the sum is less than one hundred dollars, it may be paid to the widow or next of kin to the deceased, without legal administration on his estate, and it is agreed that such payment shall discharge the Corporation.

XVII. The Institution may at any annual meeting, upon the recommendation of a majority of the Trustees, divide the whole of the property among the depositors, in proportion to their respective interests therein, upon giving three months' prior notice thereof.

XVIII. The By-Laws and Regulations may be altered, and additional ones established at any legal meeting of the Corporation; but not so as to affect the previous rights of any depositor.

Extracts from the Law Passed by the Legislature Relating to Savings Banks

'SECTION 55. All deposits in savings banks in the State are exempt from municipal taxation to the bank or to the depositor, but real estate owned by the bank, not held as collateral security, may be taxed by the town in which the same is located.

'SEC. 28. The trustees, after passing to the reserve fund one quarter of one per cent. of the average amount of deposits for the six months previous to declaring a dividend, not subject to be divided, shall declare dividends, not exceeding two and a half per cent. semi-annually except as herein after provided, at such times as are required by their by-laws, among depositors of three months' standing at least before dividend day. The corporation may by its by-laws include deposits of less standing. The reserve fund shall be kept constantly on hand, to secure against losses and contingencies, until it amounts to five per cent. of the deposits. All losses shall be passed to the debit of said account. And when said reserve fund amounts to ten per cent. of the average amount of deposits for the six months previous to declaring a dividend, all net profits not otherwise divided, thereafter made by said banks, shall be divided every three years equally among the depositors of one, two and three full years' standing, as extra dividends. No dividends or interest shall be declared, credited or paid, except by a vote of the board of trustees, entered upon their records, whereon shall be recorded the yeas and nays upon such vote. Trustees of savings banks and savings institutions are forbidden to make any semi-annual dividend of a rate per cent. which will make the aggregate amount of said dividend greater than the actual earnings of the bank or institution, actually collected.
