

Congregation Etz Chaim

Rabbi Gary Berenson

Etz Chaim Synagogue

Our Friday, March 8th speaker at 7 p.m. will be Shoshana Hoose. She is a founding member of Welcoming the Stranger, a grassroots mentoring program for asylum seekers in the Portland area. She also mentors two families and serves on the Welcoming the Stranger steering committee.

Shoshana teaches English to immigrant adults at Portland Adult Education and at the University of New England. Her previous careers include newspaper reporting and documentary film-making. She joined Congregation Bet Ha'am when it was first beginning and was located in the Etz Chaim building, and has been active in social justice activities at the synagogue ever since. Welcoming the Stranger grew out of work on immigrant issues by Bet Ha'am's Social Action Committee.

Please join us Friday March 8th and stay for a friendly Oneg following services.
