Dear Harold:

The Center Institute of Jewish Studies Committee appreciates the fine review which you presented on Monday evening. As the first speaker in the series, your excellent presentation started the course in Jewish literature on an extremely high plane.

Though illness prevented me from having the pleasure of hearing you, others on the committee have told me how well-written and intelligently prepared was your interpretation of the "Anti-Semite and the Jew".

With many thanks and all good wishes,

Sincerely,

Louis S. Black
