

PORTLAND JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER NEW YEAR BOOK

1984-5745

In Memory of A Friend

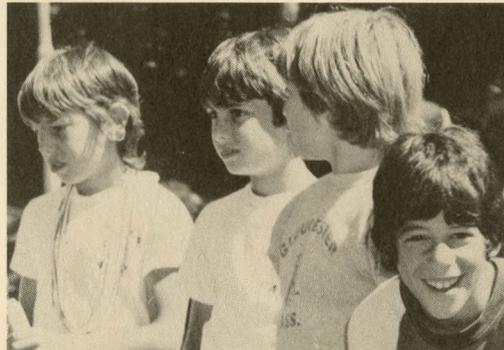

As last year's yearbook was being printed, the entire Portland community, and especially we at the Jewish Community Center, lost a friend. With the death of Stephen Brent Jacobson, the community mourned an outstanding young adult whose future held the promise of leadership, responsibility and respect.

As noted by the pictures below, Stephen was always active in the Jewish Community Center. From his early days at Center Day Camp up through receiving the Robert J. Agger Memorial Award, and participating on our softball team, Stephen always displayed a sense of commitment and community. Stephen was not only well liked, but admired and respected. He had just finished his first season as co-coach of the Jewish Community Center's Green Team and was already looking forward to a winning season in 1984.

The Jewish Community Center's Robert J. Agger Memorial Award was given to Stephen for his leadership, sportsmanship and outstanding athletic ability on both Center and high school teams. His commitment to both the Jewish and general community went far beyond what one would expect from one so young. In his memory, the Jewish Community Center has established a scholarship fund and award to be given to a graduating high school senior who best exemplifies Stephen's ideals, compassion, leadership and desire.

We dedicate this year book to Stephen Brent Jacobson. The memories we shared and the spirit he invoked will remain forever.

Center President

As President of the Jewish Community Center, it is my pleasure to wish everyone a happy New Year. With our program year beginning I look forward to seeing all of you participating in our programs. We are planning many different courses and events for the young and old alike.

With the continued support of our entire community the Center can prosper and grow as it has in the past few years.

Roberta, Adam, Amy and David join me in wishing everyone a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year.

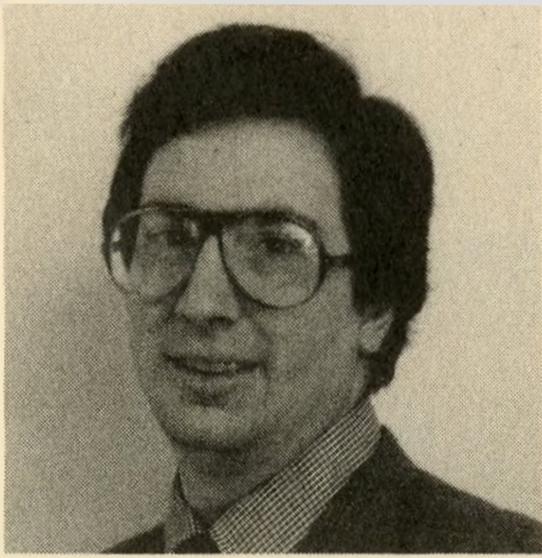

Edwin R. Nelson

President, United Way of Greater Portland

On behalf of United Way of Greater Portland, I extend best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year to the Jewish Community Center, its staff, volunteers and supporters.

Congratulations to the Center for another successful year. United Way looks forward to continuing our excellent relationship with you during the coming year and in the future.

Peter Litman

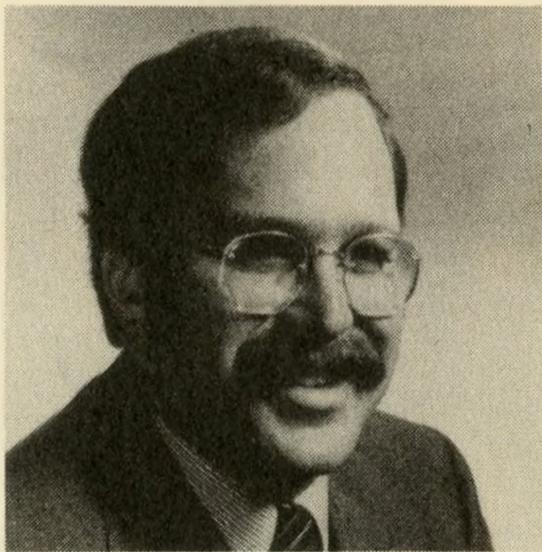

Executive Director

Thank you — to the Jewish community and the entire Greater Portland community I must say thank you. Two full program years in our new home are now complete and the overwhelming success has generated new enthusiasm for everyone involved.

I must thank the officers and volunteers who make my job easier while enriching the entire community with quality programs. I must thank the membership for its dedication and commitment to the organization. It is you who are responsible for our success. I must thank the entire Greater Portland community for its support and revived interest in all that the Jewish Community Center is and does.

As we begin a new year, we feel confident in what we are doing. We are ready to serve the needs of this community in a healthy Jewish environment. The programs are set, the instructors are ready. Join us and become part of a true success story.

My wife, Heidi, and sons, Drew and Keith, join me in wishing all of you a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year.

Robert Willis

President, Jewish Federation of Southern Maine

The New Year begins another exciting year for our community. Through our community's spirit of cooperation, we have completed our first year of the Omnibus series. This cooperation continued into the formation of a Welcome Wagon program to greet and assist the many new Jewish families and individuals to Portland. It is through these new efforts of cooperation that we cement the bonds of Jewish family and community.

As the Jewish Community Center and the Jewish Federation of Southern Maine complete their second year in our new home, we thank all who continue to make our home a success.

My wife, Sally, and our children, Aaron, Daniel and Lesley join me in wishing you the happiest of New Years.

Governor Joseph E. Brennan

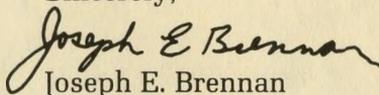

To the Jewish Community of Portland:

It is my pleasure to extend my most sincere greetings to the Jewish Community of Portland during this High Holiday Season.

At this time of reflection and faith, I share with you the hope that the year to come will bring all people and all nations closer to true peace and brotherhood.

I wish each of you a New Year of health, happiness and prosperity.

Sincerely,

Joseph E. Brennan
Governor

Rabbi Harry Z. Sky

In this year of presidential politics, we Jews are being exposed again to the agenda of human life. We are being confronted with basic questions pertaining to our way of life, our loyalty to the U.S.A., and our relation to Israel.

Whenever we are challenged we rally and find answers in our heritage and tradition to assure our continued loyalty to our people and to our past.

As we face 5745, let us listen to the words of our ancient teachers. Be not afraid nor be dismayed; Be strengthened by your belief in God and live with love in yourself in your future.

My family joins me in wishing you a happy, healthy, and prosperous year. A year of hope, faith, and good deeds.

Mayor David H. Brennerman

To the Members of the Jewish Community:

As Mayor of the City of Portland, I am pleased to express the best wishes of the City Council to every member of the Portland Jewish Community for a happy, healthy, peaceful, and prosperous New Year.

On a personal note, as a member of the Jewish community, I am delighted to extend my personal best wishes and those of my family as we celebrate another High Holiday in our special corner of the world — Portland.

Sincerely,

David H. Brennerman
Mayor
City of Portland

Rabbi Asher Reichert

The role of the Community in Judaism has served as the outer ring of concentric circles of responsibility and obligation for its members. The outer ring of the community has always been a supplementary role to the next inner ring, the family. The family's role in Jewish life has traditionally been intended to be a supportive and instructive one. It helps its members receive their basic physical, emotional and spiritual needs. But the innermost ring of responsibility guides the individual. Each person has to see to his own growth according to his own potential irrespective of what his family or friends may or may not do to assist him.

As the new year approaches, it is customary to devote oneself to self evaluation. This would be a proper time for each of us to bring this awareness to actualization and make a commitment to involve ourselves in community affairs. Each of us should choose the area, whether it be visiting the sick or shut-ins, making ourselves available to help others in need or any other facet of community or Federation involvement and do our share to make our

We have now completed two full program years in our new home. Success after success has generated high energy levels from our volunteer workers and staff for the upcoming program year.

This past programming season saw Preschool and Small Fry cooking filled to capacity and with waiting lists. Noah's Ark, weekday afternoon classes, vacation camps and our special holiday celebrations were just some of the exciting and fun-filled programming that highlighted an extremely busy year.

Our youth athletic programs included basketball, karate, Sunday exercising classes, Maccabiah games and Olympiads. The children who were present during the year can vouch that this was a great program year.

This upcoming program year will provide a rich variety of both new and innovative programs along with our traditional successful offerings. Under the leadership of Program Vice President, Bette Novick, 1984-85 holds the promise of even greater success. Won't you become a part of the Center family? Join us today!

CENTER DAY CAMP

1984 Center Day Camp season under the direction of Alan Hirsch was absolutely astonishing. Enrollment for the first session reached 200 campers with just a slight drop off in attendance for the second session.

Red Cross swimming, athletics, boating, campcraft, arts & crafts, and heritage provided a well rounded, extremely busy camp day for everyone.

New Horizons (preschool) under the direction of Geri Hirsch continues to be a smash hit at Center Day Camp. Maximum enrollment was reached by mid-May, and those graduating into the first grade group returned for another dose of CDC magic. Please remember to sign up early for Center Day Camp '85 to assure you space for your child.

With special all camp events, good weather and our outstanding staff CDC continues to be the best Day Camp experience in Southern Maine.

WE ARE THE JCC

*All things to all people, that is what we try to be
We offer this pictorial for all the world to see
Our programs are terrific, diversified in scope
We fill the time with quality, and we succeed . . . we hope
We use this presentation to give our staff its due
We have the programs ready . . .
now all we need is you.*

CENTER MEN'S CLUB

would like to wish everyone
