Third Annual Family Picnic Sunday

George Lewis To Head Program Honoring Fathers

The announcement by Harold Potter, Center President, that Geo. I. Lewis has assumed chairmanship of the Father & Sons Party on Tuesday evening, June 12, has given additional momentum to this proposed outstanding Center event of the season. George, the father of 4 handsome young men, knows what programs are suitable for such an occasion and he is already formulating elaborate plans for the evening.

GEORGE I. LEWIS

In accepting the chairmanship, George emphasized that everyone who plans to attend must be accompanied by a son — not under 6 years of age — and the "boyless" fathers should start looking around now. He further suggests that perhaps Shep Cutler, Cantor Zimmerman, Carl Webber, Yoland Potter, Zeke Rich, Earl Brand, Jos. Schatz, and a host of many others be contacted now for the loan of a son for the evening.

Center Youth Elects Officers

Center Youth is winding up one of its most successful years. On June third there will be a C.Y. and parent banquet at the Center. Harold Potter, Center President, will install the new officers who are: Neil Loeb and Malka Loew, co-presidents; Lenny Nelson, Vice-Pres.; Ruthie Lerman, Secretary; Dianna Garon, Treasurer; and Ginny Posner the Corresponding Secretary.

While on the subject of officers, we don't want to forget the able assistance given by our Adult Advisor . . . Mrs. Philip Schilling.

It has been a good full year and we feel sure that the new slate of officers will go on to even greater heights next Fall . . . in turning out a program of interest to all Center Youth. Mr. Taylor was, as usual, very helpful.

Remember the date of the Banquet . . . Sunday, June 3. Please attend and help wind up the year in style.

department" is Lester Willis (father of three boys) who will be chairman of reservations (the latest masculine addition to the Willis family is ineligible to attend because of his tender age).

As a pater of experience who knows the likes and dislikes in food for "growing" boys, Harold Nelson will have charge of the food for the evening. Harold's three fine offsprings are good examples of what boys should eat, and the committee feels that his experience will help considerably in planning a good sound menu.

LESTER WILLIS

Barney Shur, toastmaster of the evening, has already been busy making contacts for outstanding personalities. A full evening of fun, entertainment, and hilarity is promised to make this affair one that will be long remembered.

Additional committee chairmen and members are being added and will be announced shortly. The committee is hoping to make Father & Sons Night an annual Center attraction. Watch next week's bulletin for price, program and details.

UNIFORMLY SPEAKING

A letter from Sgt. Bernard M. Resnick, RA 11187579, Hq., 44th Engr. Const. Bn., APO 301, c/o P.M., San Francisco, California tells in glowing terms of his appreciation for the Bulletin that has been reaching him somewhere in Korea. His request for Air Mailing the Bulletin to the servicemen and women will be passed on to Mr. Taylor, and instead of it being two months en route, we hope that the time will be cut to a week, as "Red" suggests.

"Red's," mother just called to say that he had called her from Tokyo where he has been on a five day rest leave. He added that he comes up for rotation next month, and is looking forward to his return to the States. Wants to be remembered to all his friends here at home . . . and asks that they write!

Have just been informed that next issue will close the Bulletin until the Fall season . . . and since the High Holidays come late this year, we'll be gone from this spot for about four months. It doesn't mean that you can't write . . . nor that you won't hear from us. Our promise of constant contact still stands, and for every letter received, a personal letter will go out to you, bringing you up to date on what's new at home.

It would, of course, be wonderful if in the next four months world conditions would permit each and every one of you to return home. Realizing however, that this is a somewhat confused world . . . that would be too much to expect. The next best thing is to have word from you, and to pass it along. So, if you will, write "Uniformly Speaking," in care of the Center. Until the next time, remember . . . wherever you are, whatever you are doing . . . WE'RE THINKING OF YOU!

CORRECTION

IN TUNE

BEN "Deems Taylor" ZOLOV

Pardon me if I digress again and spend a few more moments on our recent concert at Lewiston. It would take many a column to do justice to the fine hospitality and reception given in our honor there.

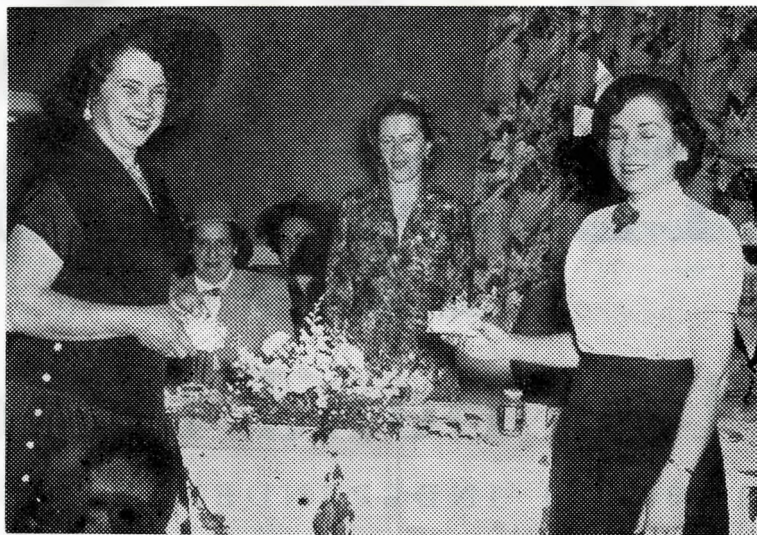

Dr. Polisner was really "plastered" all over town, I mean, in the form of publicity. The Lewiston-Auburn group were so thrilled with the program that it wouldn't surprise me to see the beginning of an orchestra there in the very near future. Rabbi Berent, who is also a composer in his own right, promised to loan us some fine Jewish arrangements for some of our concerts next year. I understand he has a large collection of Jewish music. Very gracious of him, to say the least.

Conductor Graffam was more than pleased with the fine progress our orchestra has made during the past three seasons, this year being our most successful. However, whatever ambitious plans we have for the future depend on the musical cooperation that we receive from our own members. The next few months should give you time enough to insure us an auspicious start next fall.

Troop 104

Dear Scouts:

Next Monday, May 28, is the BIG DAY.

After weeks of planning, our "Mother's Day Program" is almost here! We made the finishing touches by deciding who will entertain. Then we completed the plant pots, with more paint on us than on the pots! We want to thank Mrs. Cohen and Mrs. Modes for their wonderful leadership this year. They were wonderful, and we appreciated every bit of help.
