

CREDITS

Our thanks to Mrs. Jean Pierce, our Dancing School teacher and her accompanist, Mrs. Eleanor Boynton, for making Dancing School a happy and constructive experience.

The program, many times, is only as good as the leadership, and certainly a note of thanks goes to Mrs. Morris Cox and Mrs. Louis Pollack for a wonderful job.

A hearty thanks goes to Mrs. George Leeb and Mrs. Robert Sax for their advise and guidance on the costumes the youngsters are wearing for the Recital.

To the Center Women's Club who sponsor the Dancing School project.

To Ben Brilliant, for his time and effort in staging and lighting this 1953 final dance program.

Roland Garland, who can always be depended upon.

To the office staff, who printed this program.

And to the many volunteers, too numerous to mention, who gave willingly of their time.

Last, but not least, to the parents of the Dancing School youngsters, a special thanks for your cooperation and help during the year, and especially for your response to work on the Dancing School costumes.
