THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

As my fellow Americans of the Jewish Faith observe the coming of a New Year, I am happy to extend to each of you my warmest wishes for health and happiness.

The High Holy Days exhort your people to sanctification through meditation, prayer, penitence, and love of God and neighbor. This mission lends inspiration to all men of goodwill.

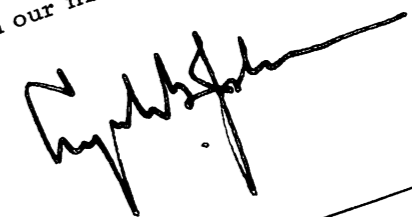

We are in the midst of a trying and troubled time -- a time that tests the bedrock beliefs of our fathers and the founders of this land. No citizens are better equipped than you to meet the challenge before us.

For those who have sought the way of justice and of mercy the road has always been a thorny one. For every friend of freedom, the history of man records at least one foe. But in every corner darkened by despair, there has always been the sterner duty of hope. For every convenient compromise to principle, there has been a human conscience to bear the burden of its own inequity.

Adversity and distress have been the constant companions of your people. But valor and endurance have been your steadfast friends -- and our own pathfinders in need.

So as you gather in these penitential days under the Fatherhood of God, the Brotherhood of Man is enriched by a well-remembered past and a resurgent hope for that which is to come.

And all of us are humbled -- and heartened -- by the sustaining Faith of Judaism in our midst.

CHAIRMAN THANKS ALL FOR SUCCESS OF BOOK

As Chairman of this New Year's Bulletin, I am pleased to announce that our campaign for new business and professional ads have increased almost fifty per cent over last year, or almost $2,000 in revenue. The success of this campaign is primarily attributable to the diligence of Beattie Schatz and Honey Cox, editors, advertisers, solicitors and office staff, and also to the constant guiding hand of Victor Taylor. I am encouraged to report that next year's campaign will show increase because of the creative planning of committee members.

With thanks to workers and ad donors alike, I also bid to each of you a Happy New Year.

Matthew S. Goldfarb
New Year Book Chairman

CENTER PROGRAMS KEEP PACE WITH OUR CHANGING TIMES

The Jewish Community Center, since its inception, has endeavored to program activities encompassing the entire membership, young and old. Always mindful of the constant changes that affect our way of life, its programs have attempted to keep pace with modern living.

We shall, in the near future, learn the results of the Population Study and Survey of our Jewish Community. I am positive that the final tabulation will reflect the needs and wants of our community, and will challenge, motivate and inspire all to garner forces in achieving and fulfilling the goals demanded of them. It is imperative that we give of ourselves in a unified effort for the betterment of our community!

I am grateful, honored and privileged once again to be able to extend for myself and my family our best wishes to you for a healthy, peaceful and prosperous New Year.

Center Women's Club Looks Forward To Future

It is a pleasure to have this opportunity to extend New Year's Greetings, in behalf of Center Women's Club, to all its many friends.

The past year has been a successful one for us. Our combined program of fund-raising and social events has enabled us to take further steps to provide much needed equipment for the Center building and our pet project — Center Day Camp.

And now we look ahead to another year in which our endeavors to serve the community will be equally enjoyable and gratifying.

We extend best wishes to our Center President, Joe Schatz, and his board, and we look forward to working with them.

My husband, Irving, and children, Ava and Mark, join me in wishing the entire community a year of good health and happiness, and in the fervent hope that the year 5728 will bring lasting peace to the world.

Governor Extends Greetings For New Year

GREETINGS:

The people of Maine join me, as Governor, in extending New Year's greetings to the Portland Jewish Community Center.

We in Maine pay tribute to the Portland Center for its outstanding and meaningful contributions to the Portland community and the State as a whole.

I hope your Holy Season will be inspiring and rewarding, and that the future will hold many years of good health and happiness.

Once again my sincere best wishes for a prosperous and joyous New Year.

Sincerely,

Sen. Smith Sends Greetings To Jewish Community

GREETINGS:

I wish to extend my most sincere wishes for a Happy New Year to all people of the Jewish Faith. May the coming year be a rededication to your great religion and faith which will serve to inspire members of the Jewish Faith all over the world and comfort those who live in troubled areas.

I particularly send warm greetings to those in Portland who have worked so faithfully and unstintingly through the Jewish Community Center for the spiritual health and happiness of so many people.

Much To Be Thankful For Much To Pray For – Sen. Muskie

The start of the new year is a time for renewed hope for personal fulfillment, and of prayer for the achievement of the traditional Jewish values of justice and peace, at home and around the world.

This year, the occasion has special significance. A small, youthful nation has successfully defended its integrity against a far larger force which would have denied its right of existence.

In so doing, Israel demonstrated its commitment to the ideals of freedom, independence and self-determination, the same values which have helped guide the development of the United States for nearly 200 years.

Men of good will everywhere have taken heart at Israel's spirit, and wish her and her neighbors wisdom and God's speed in securing the peace. There is much to be thankful for, and much to pray for, as this new year begins.

Edmund S. Muskie
United States Senator

Rep. Kyros Outlines Challenges On This New Year

On this solemn Rosh Hashanah, I am pleased to extend my warmest good wishes to the Jewish Community of the Portland area.

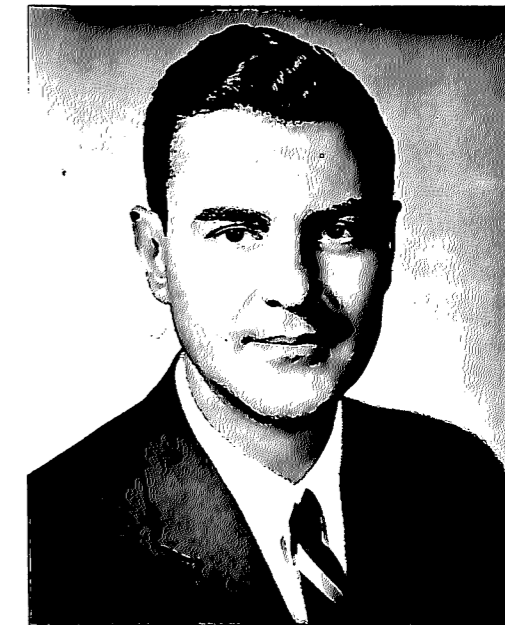

Since the arrival in Rhode Island of several families from Spain, more than two centuries ago, Jewish immigrants and their descendants have made an immense contribution to our country.

The Portland community has upheld and enriched that tradition, by assisting in the growth and securing the welfare of our own area.

This New Year celebration is a particularly momentous occasion, for we in America have witnessed the triumph of a beleaguered democracy against Soviet arms in the Middle East. Truly, in this New Year, a great challenge to master the consequences of that victory for a better world is a responsibility that not only Israel, but all of us, must confront.

With Jerusalem once again entirely under Jewish jurisdiction, with hostile borders coming under control, with her rights as a sovereign nation again reaffirmed, Israel can face the future with pride and confidence. Here in Maine, the Jewish Community, too, can have pride in the achievements of the past, and confidence in your ability to meet the challenge of the future.

Again, my best wishes for happiness and success in the New Year.

Peter N. Kyros
Member of Congress

Rep. Hathaway Takes Pleasure In Extending Best Wishes

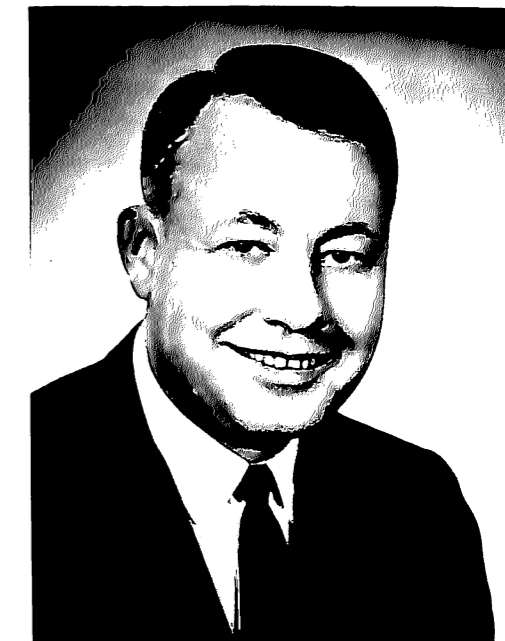

Dear Friends:

Amos prophesied, "And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

"And I will plant them upon their land and they shall no more be pulled out of their land which I have given them, saith the Lord thy God."

It has been a proud year, and it is a pleasure to extend my greetings and best wishes for the next.

Sincerely,
William D. Hathaway
U.S. Congressman

Center's Contribution To City Well Established

Dear Friends,

As a new administration begins to work for Portland, a New Year is marked by the Jewish People. Nothing new, however, are your contributions to making Portland a better place to live.

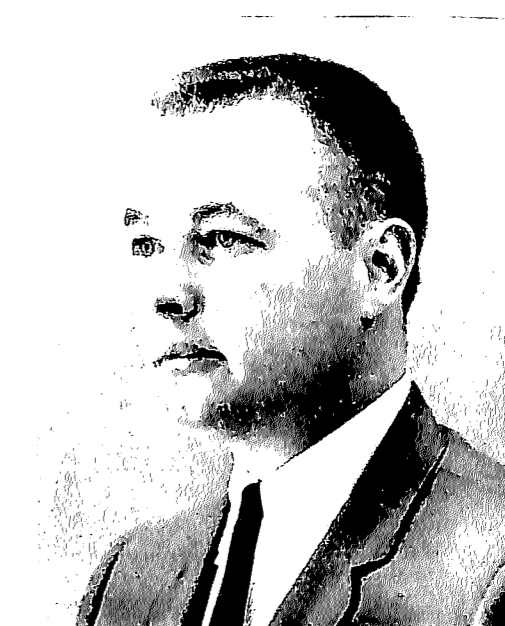

The Community Center's role as an active participant in the community is an established one.

City Government as a mere provider of public services is not sufficient to meet the needs of a progressive municipality. City Government today must be enthusiastic in spirit and constructive in problem solving; City Government must inspire business and lead community action; City Government must provide the tools by which means a better community will result. As Portland begins implementing the ideas that were once only ideals, there is a cause for excitement and an optimism never justified before.

I am confident the immediate future will find Portland a better community.

As these challenges for the New Year look us in the eye, let us continue to work together for a better Portland.

Sincerely,

Jewish Community Integral Part Of Better Portland

The greetings of the Portland City Council to each and every one of you, and best wishes for the New Year 5728.

The Jewish Community Center in Portland is a source of strength to this municipality. Its members play key roles in this community in a variety of ways. This City's able and dedicated Corporation Counsel, Barnett I. Shur, who, again, recently served as Acting City Manager, is a classic example of what substantial contributions of time and talent Portland has received from an individual of the Jewish Community.

The New Year is one already marked with change in the administration of our City. The number of projects envisioned for Portland in the near future will make the coming year a memorable one. Yet each step forward will find the City well assisted by many, and the Jewish Community will be well represented in those numbers. Your continued support sustains its place as an integral part of a better Portland.

Sincerely,
Harold G. Loring

UCS Looks Forward To Continuation Of Cooperation

For twenty-one years, United Community Services and the Jewish Community Center have worked in cooperation to provide a more fully developed program of services. This mutuality of support has been a source of strength for the progress of both the Center and UCS. We look forward to a continuation of the warm and cooperative relationship between the two agencies.

I am pleased to extend the greetings of UCS through the Center's New Year's Bulletin.

FOR A MEANINGFUL YEAR

Uppermost in our minds at Rosh Hashanah is the sense of Klal Yisroel that aroused the American Jewish community to such united, dramatic and unprecedented emergency efforts on behalf of Israel during her gravest hours in May and June.

As an instrument of the Jewish community for the preservation and enrichment of Jewish life, Jewish Community Centers throughout the United States became part of this unequaled outpouring of manpower and resources in concert with other Jewish organizations.

These acts of involvement and devotion epitomized the qualities of responsibility and discipline that can bring added strength and maturity to the Center's Jewish purposes during the Jewish New Year 5728. They are the harbinger of new dimensions in Jewish fulfillment for teenagers, college age youth and adults through participation in the expanding Jewish cultural programs provided by Centers to the Jewish community.

As the national association of Jewish Community Centers and YM-YWHAs, the National Jewish Welfare Board pledges everything within its power to fortify the Center's role in American Jewish life and its growing impact as a force for Jewish unity in other parts of the world.

As the representative of the American Jewish community in providing for the religious, morale and welfare needs of Jewish servicemen, their families and hospitalized Jewish veterans, JWB reaffirms its commitment to those who are sorely tried by separation from home and community.

We fervently look forward to the restoration of peace in the world, to the early return of servicemen to their loved ones and to the safety and security of the people and the State of Israel.

On this Rosh Hashanah, I extend to you, on behalf of the National Jewish Welfare Board and myself, best wishes for good health and fulfillment in all of your individual and communal endeavors throughout the year.

President, National Jewish Welfare Board

Creativity In Reaching Members Can Strengthen Center

In keeping with Jewish tradition, Rosh Hashanah is the holiday on which Jews throughout the world are united in reaffirming their allegiance to the Jewish community.

It is this sense of oneness in heritage and destiny that produced such a memorable groundswell of concern and action in support of Israel during her time of grave peril in 1967.

By their unprecedented response to the emergency call for voluntary efforts, American Jews of all ages demonstrated their abiding concern for the preservation of Jewish life and values. In essence, they said: "Give us a Jewish program that has meaning for us, and you can be certain of our wholehearted participation."

Herein is both the challenge and the opportunity facing the Jewish Community Center field. Creativity in reaching the members of the American Jewish community with many and varied Jewish programs can strengthen the Center in the implementation of its Jewish purposes throughout the New Year 5728. JWB is mindful of its responsibility to help its affiliated Centers and Ys to meet this challenge.

In carrying out its obligations in the name of the American Jewish community, JWB will also redouble its efforts in providing religious, morale and welfare services so vitally needed by the steadily mounting members of Jewish men serving in the U.S. Armed Forces in Vietnam and at hundreds of other overseas and domestic installations.

May the New Year bring the establishment of peace in the world, and a fuller and richer Jewish life through the personal and community service.

NEW YEAR'S GREETINGS FROM NEW ENGLAND REGION-JEWISH WELFARE BOARD

As we approach the Hebrew New Year 5728, the American Jewish community and world Jewry can be justifiably proud of the heroic results of Israel during the most recent war. With all we hear about the "alienated Jews", it was certainly heart-warming to see the tremendous response from Jews of all ages, both in money and service, in support of Jewish life in the State of Israel. Jewish Community Centers and Jewish Federations, as well as other major Jewish institutions, certainly demonstrated their positions of leadership in local communities throughout New England and the United States in this challenge to the survival of Israel.

I take this opportunity to extend New Year Greetings to all of Portland Jewry. May this year also bring the fulfillment of social planning efforts which have been currently undertaken by your local Jewish communal leaders. To these local efforts, the Jewish Welfare Board will make available its full professional resources, and thus insure the opportunity to complete plans for an expanded and enhanced program of meaningful Jewish Center activities within the tenets of the Jewish Center Movement.

May the year 5728 bring peace in Viet Nam and the entire world. Thus, we may then continue to utilize our efforts in enriching Jewish life and in the perpetuation of democratic ideals in our communities and the United States on behalf of world Jewry.

Herbert D. Setlow
President

Humility And Thanksgiving
For Miracle Of Victory

We greet the New Year in a spirit of humility and thanksgiving to the Almighty G-d who has miraculously given victory to the Israeli forces over the enemies who sought their destruction. For the first time in 20 years Jews will pray on the forthcoming High Holidays at the KOTEL MAARAVI; and for the first time in 2,000 years it will be under Jewish autonomy.

The KOTEL MAARAVI was the western wall of the Temple courtyard and is all that remains of that ancient glory. Legend has it that the money for this wall was donated by the generosity of the rich and poor alike. Therefore it is indestructible and has served as the symbol of Jewish eternity.

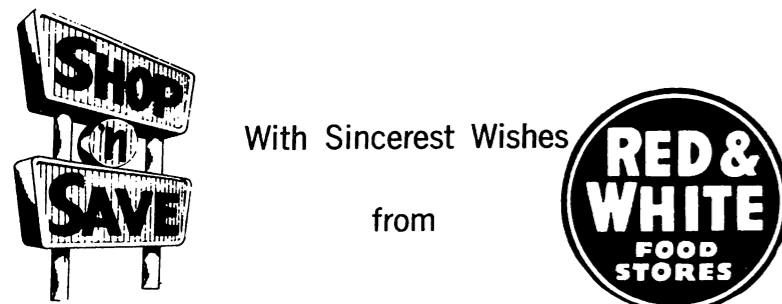

When we pray we turn our eyes eastward towards Jerusalem and towards this wall. Here the prayers of Jews throughout the world meet. This year we join our prayers with those of our brothers who will pray in the shadow of this holy antiquity and hope that our prayers and theirs will ascend to heaven for a K'sivah Vachsimah Tovah.

Mrs. Bekritsky joins me in wishing everyone a happy and prosperous New Year and one of peace.

Greeting And Prayer
Are One — "Shalom Al Yisrael"

There is only one greeting that one can extend during this High Holy Day Season, "Shalom Al Yisrael" — May Peace come to Israel.

The month of June, 1967 will forever be recorded in the annals of Jewish history as a month of miracles, and the six days will in time be extended to eight. They will be afforded the same honor and distinction as the Maccabees' struggle of 167 BCE, for here, too, the few stood against the many and they were victorious. Already many are saying that special prayers should be written to commemorate these days.

This was the event of the past year. At last the beleaguered State of Israel asserted its own strength, discovered its own identity and made its own mark upon the pages of history. In saying this I do not deny the glories of the past, but I do assert the victory of the present.

As Mrs. Sky and I extend greetings to you for the coming year, we also pray "Shalom Al Yisrael."

Rabbi Harry Z. Sky

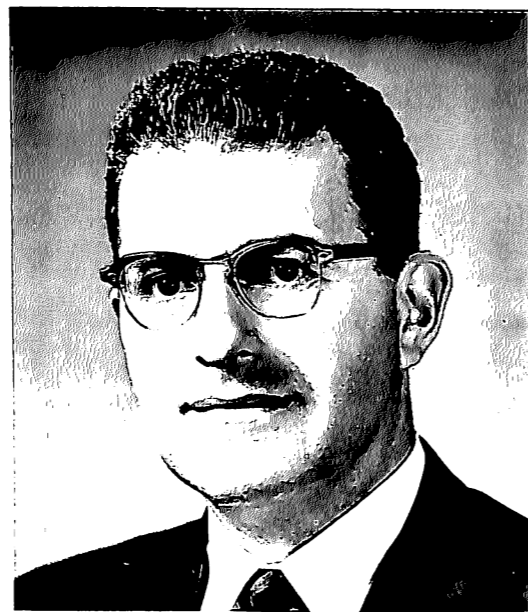

Spirit Of Emergency Giving Inspires Hope And Faith

The true worth of strong, central community organization was manifest once again this past May and June when Federation leadership was able, in just a few days, to mobilize the entire community to come to the aid of beleaguered Israel.

The spirit in which funds were given to the Israel Emergency Fund was a ray of new hope and gave greater faith in the true feelings of the general community about what happens to Jews to those of us charged with the role of continuing community planning and organization.

We, the officers and board members of the Jewish Federation of Portland and its fund-raising arm, the Combined Jewish Appeal, extend our best wishes for a New Year of peace and harmony, of health and happiness to the entire community.

Melvin L. Stone
Federation President

ACHIEVEMENTS OF PAST ASSESSED WITH GOALS OF FUTURE

The approaching holidays afford us an opportunity to ponder and seriously reflect the changing complexes of the world about us.

The intensification of class struggle becomes more manifest and is a genuine concern of ours. Inequalities of economic standards, inadequate educational and physical conditions and racial disturbances require much soul searching and sound leadership that will create a society to assure racial, economic and social justice for all citizens.

A new period in the history of the Jewish people was created in those unforgettable days of late May and early June. Universal Jewry united its forces and resources to assist Israel in its struggle for existence and right to live as a nation.

During the past 30 years in our present quarters, our services and programs have been constantly expanding. We have not remained complacent, nor have we been impulsive in our advancement. We have grown steadily and firmly and trust that we will continue to do so.

We attempt to emulate the direction and progress of the National Center Movement. Its function is to focus its institutional effort in aiding in the achievement of unity in a community, amid the existing diversity of organizations, structure, and outlook. The Center encourages the process of interaction between Jewish groups, since the exchange of views and obtaining consensus are critical for the perpetuation and advancement of Jewish life. The uniqueness of the Jewish Community Center is in the distinctive combination of the Center's communal character, "know how", and content of service. The Center reflects the needs of the total community to create and support a positive and favorable climate for Jewish identity and distinctiveness.

The development of Center leadership is being directed into all facets of communal endeavors, as well as in our own Jewish life. The significance and relevance of our Jewish heritage must be expressed in many activities. We must redirect our services to take account of the growing sophistication of American Jewry. Shifting populations and neighborhood changes should be barometers for our future plans. Emphasis on programs is indicative of our varied clientele. The sights of our activities must be set for qualitative as well as quantitative approaches.

Our camp programs have reached a high level of importance and acceptance. The gift of the new aluminum floating dock by the Center Women's Club has enhanced our outdoor program considerably. Family usage of the camp facilities on Sundays has increased. Classes for little tots are planned in the Center, and the Tween and Center Youth group programs will be developed on a more purposeful and meaningful basis. Classes and forums, both secular and cultural, will be added as requests are made by our membership. The established Blood Bank has been called upon by our members more and more each year of its existence. Our socials, lecture series, and entertainments have been well received and attended. Increased physical activities for both male and female groups have encouraged greater participation of the new and enlarged facilities of our "new health program."

The continued cooperation of the Center Women's Club toward all phases of our program plans and increased facilities at our camp site, as well as in our building, has enabled us to enlarge our goals of service.

We are truly serving all the members of our Center family from the youngest through the Friendship Group in our theme of "greater participation for all."

As ever, your comments and suggestions are always welcome. Our entire family join me in extending sincerest wishes for a fruitful year in a more harmonious and peaceful world.

Day Camp Most Important To Center And Community

Happy New Year to my camp committee, the camp staff, the Center staff and to all who helped to make this season a successful one for Center Day Camp. I am thankful to all for a job well done.

Our camp is in fine shape, a pleasure to behold! Our latest physical improvement is our aluminum dock and again may I thank the Center Women's Club for its fine work and never-ending generosity.

In behalf of the Center, may I thank Mr. and Mrs. Charles "Cuddy" Cohen for their generous gift of a flag pole and plaque which further enhances the beauty of the site.

I am very proud to be chairman of the Center Day Camp Committee because I feel that day camp is second to no other Center activity in its importance to the Center and to the community. No other activity does so much to build fine men and women as future leaders for us and our city.

My family and my camp committee join me in extending our best wishes for a happy and healthy New Year to all.

Accident Insurance Policy Available To Center Members

If you take part in any one of the activities of the Center, you can't afford to pass up the accident insurance policy available to you for the sum of $1.50 to $2.25 (because we have three plans). Plan No. 1 covers the year-round activities of the Center including summer day camp or summer activity programs from September 15, 1967 to September 15, 1968 at $2.25 per Center member.

Plan No. 2 covers all Center activities from September 15, 1967 to June 15, 1968 at $1.50 per Center member.

Plan No. 3 covers Center Day camp or summer activities programs from June 15, 1968 to September 15, 1968 at $1.50 per Center member and day camper. When used to cover day camps, participation by all campers is required.

The expiration date of Plan 2 and the inception date of Plan 3 can be extended to coincide with Center programming.

The coverage is in effect for all injuries caused by an accident sustained while participating in the activities sponsored and supervised by the Center, and includes coverage for group travel to and from Center activities. Coverage for day camp activities is also provided. When a member requires medical treatment by a legally qualified physician or surgeon, confinement in a hospital, employment of a licensed graduate nurse and miscellaneous expenses, i.e., x-rays, drugs, dressings because of an accident covered by the policy, the insuring company will pay the actual expenses as a result of such services rendered within 52 weeks of the date of the accident. These expenses are payable up to a maximum of $1,000.00 for each covered accident.

Any member of the Center, regardless of age, is eligible to enroll. You can't afford to be without the insurance.

Paid-Up Center Members Register For Theater Club

The Jewish Community Center's Theater Club, under the general direction of Mrs. Maurice (Frances) Davis, is off to an excellent start. Over 50 members have signed and paid their $5.00 registration fee to participate in this new program. In this group are the "waiters" who are eligible to substitute for the members unable to make the trip.

$1.00 is for the registration — the $4.00 is a credit. One dollar will be deducted from the price of the trip each time for four times. The rules are simple — Each member is a fully paid-up Center member. The price is a minimum amount for transportation, theater tickets and a dinner on the way back from the show.

The first show visited by the girls was on Wednesday, September 13, when the show "Daphne In Cottage D" was presented at the Wilbur Theater. The reviews of this show have more than reaffirmed the attitude and feeling of our own show critics who were in attendance.

Other shows coming up for our club at the Wilbur are:

"How to Be a Jewish Mother", starring Molly Picon and Godfrey Cambridge, on Wednesday afternoon, November 1. An added attraction for those wishing to see another show in rapid succession will be "How Now, Dow Jones" on Wednesday, November 15, at the Colonial Theater.

Shows in 1968 are now being reserved by theater coordinator Frances Davis. For questions and information call her at 773-5135.

Center Youth Plans For New Season

At a recent meeting of the Center Youth officers plans were made for the 1967-1968 season. Novel events for the Jewish holidays, social programs for vacation periods and activities for every Center Youther were outlined at this executive meeting.

The first event of the season was a picnic and outing held at the Center Day Camp site on August 30. This outdoor program honored the freshmen and enabled the other Center Youthers to talk about their past summer's exploits.

The officers for the coming year are:

President Benjamin Brem
Vice President—Program George Marcus
Vice President—Membership Rick Diamon
Treasurer Stephen Romanow
Recording Secretary Anita Mack
Corresponding Secretary Ruth Hugo
Chaplain Steven Hirshon

Assisting as advisors are Mr. and Mrs. William Webber and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Goodman.

In making his message to the officers, President Brem extended heartiest New Year wishes to his board and to all members of Center Youth.

DIET WORKSHOP PROGRAM ADDS MEMBERS, SUBTRACTS WEIGHT

The Center has been sponsoring for the last three months a Thursday morning group. An experienced group leader who has lost weight on this program conducts the meetings. Weight loss is attained through the stimulus of meeting others who share the same problems in following each other as they lost weight together. Weighing is private.

As of September 9, 1967, an evening group which meets at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday was formed. New members may join either group at any time and the Diet Workshop Program is open to the general public.

As participants in the program, members can anticipate losing pounds gradually and sensibly by means of a diet plan using gourmet recipes, such as pizzas and frappes. These recipes, which go hand-in-hand with the diet, are given each week, giving the members something to look forward to as opposed to the old "rabbit food" school of dieting.

For those who stay with the program until they reach their goal, a framed "before and after" picture is given as a graduation present. In addition, graduates may attend meetings free-of-charge forever as long as they do not gain over two pounds.

"Puerto Rican Trip For Two" Is Door Prize At CWC Dance

The Center Women's Club is sponsoring a gala "Cocktail Dance" to be held at the Jewish Community Center on Saturday, November 25, at 8:30 P.M.

The music will be supplied by Syd Lerman and his orchestra. Cocktails and Hors d'oeuvres will be served.

The fabulous door prize is a complete "One Week Vacation Trip for Two" at the San Jeronimo Hilton in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Only 200 tickets will be sold, so your chances of winning are excellent. You need not be present to win.

Dancing, cocktails, Hors d'oeuvres and a chance on the Puerto Rico trip are yours for only $10.00 per couple.

Your ticket is your admittance to all this and you will be helping the Center Day Camp, where all proceeds will go.

Buy your ticket now and come and join your friends for a most enjoyable evening.
