Community Chest Campaign for 15 Agencies Deserves Community Support

Spark-plugged by an enthusiastic assemblage of workers the Bangor-Brewer Community Chest campaign was officially begun this Monday.

Exhorted to reach their goal, the workers were given a clear picture of the values and contributions to the community of the Chest agencies.

The Jewish Community Council urges its members and friends to rally to the support of the Chest campaign. Through this cooperative effort the Chest will be able to successfully complete its campaign and grant to the 14 Chest agencies the dollars so needed for their continued service to the community.

Bangor Center to Conduct Workshop at J. W. B. Conference

The Bangor Jewish Community Center has accepted the invitation of the New England Jewish Welfare Board to conduct a workshop at the New England Conference. The conference to be held at the Center in Manchester, New Hampshire will pay particular attention to the problems facing American Jewry in the years ahead.

The experiences of Bangor in meeting its needs and the methods utilized will be the spring-board for the workshop on "Planning Total Community Needs." Persons desiring to attend the Conference on November 7 and 8 are urged to make their reservations now at the Center office.

NURSERY SCHOOL OPENS WITH CAPACITY ATTENDANCE

Thirty-six youngsters answered present when the nursery school held its first session on Monday. Paced by our "senior class" the youngsters have quickly adjusted themselves to the new experiences opened to them in the school.

Mrs. Clarence Hatch is again directing our school and is assisted by Mrs. Clark, a graduate of the University of Maine, and Miss Judkins, who comes to us from teaching at the nursery school at Fort Hamilton, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Joseph Ornstein announced today that the school will not accept additional registrations until February.

The parents of the nursery school are invited to visit the school and observe the children in action.

The first meeting of the parents group will be held on Thursday evening October 22.

"HERE'S ISRAEL—THIRD EDITION" TO MAKE APPEARANCE AT CENTER

Hanna Zamir

Mort Freeman

"HERE'S ISRAEL—THIRD EDITION" will appear at the Center, Saturday evening, October 17th at 8:30 p. m. Jointly sponsored by the Bangor Jewish Zionist District and the Center, this American-Israeli troupe will present a program of songs and music, featuring Hanna Zamir and Mort Freeman.

Miss Zamir has appeared in numerous operatic performances in Europe and Israel. Her rich voice has won for Miss Zamir the acclaim of Israeli music critics as an outstanding coloratura.

Mr. Freeman, accomplished young American baritone, recently completed an extended engagement at New York's Israel Cafe HABIBI. He has appeared as soloist with the American People's Chorus and the United Nations Radio. His repertoire includes songs of many nations and through his folk songs he imparts the feeling of the culture and customs of people.

Miss Zamir and Mr. Freeman will be accompanied by Shmuel Fershko, prominent Israeli composer and concert pianist and director of Kol Israel L'Chayal, Israel's Armed Forces Radio Station.

A cordial invitation to attend this concert is extended to the entire community.

Bangor Youth Off to College

Schools have begun once again, and we've noticed a few familiar faces missing this year.

Paul Emple has left for Wharton School of Finance at the University of Pennsylvania.

Connie Schiro is attending Boston University and Rachel Nachum the New England School of Art.

Estelle Gotlib, Bob Levine, and Howard Silver have chosen the University of Maine.

Dave Price is attending Husson College here in Bangor.

Peter Harpel has chosen Harvard and Paul Rudman, Yale.

Ida-Joy Rosen is among the students at Mount Ida Junior College, Sandra Lacritz at LaSalle, and Jerry Less at Kents Hill.

To all of our young people our best wishes for a successful school year.

Silk Screening Course Offered to Adults

Francis Hamabe, who conducted the successful art course last season, has been engaged to instruct an adult class in silk screening. Mr. Hamabe has held numerous exhibits that have received the commendation of art critics and he is one of the few artists residing in Maine who has developed the art of silk screening.

The class will hold its first meeting on Tuesday evening, November 3. Registration for the ten-week course may be made by calling the Center office.
