

Dear Friends,

I hope you are enjoying our wonderful Maine summer. Here at the MJFF, in between cookouts and kayaking, we're working on the always challenging task of choosing just the right films for our 2019 Festival (March 9 - 15).

We're also so pleased to be able to announce 3 film screenings this Fall (see below for more info).

We hope you'll be able to attend all of these really special films. Enjoy the rest of the summer!

NEWS ABOUT MJFF FILMS

Forever Pure, the Israeli film about the Jerusalem's Beitar soccer club and their fans outrage about Muslim players, has been nominated for a 2019 Emmy in the News and Documentary category category.

Sammy Davis, Jr., the 2018 Senior film was a big Festival hit. If you want to see it again or have friends who missed it, the film will be available on PBS February, 2019.
