When you think of Gilda Radner it's impossible not to think of her smile, in all of its incarnations. In Love Gilda, there are plenty of smiles along with some tears, backstage stories, archival footage and interviews with comedy stars from then and now. Only Portland Screening!

October 18-21 at the PMA MORE DETAILS HERE

In 1968, former prime minister Ben Gurion sat down with a BBC film crew for a free wheeling discussion on subjects ranging from Uncle Tom's Cabin to the evolution of the Israeli State. This never-before-seen footage is never less than fascinating. Following the film will be a discussion with Prof. Ilan Troen of Ben Gurion University.

November 4th at the JCA - Free Admission
