CABIN FEVER

Traveling Show

MAINE JEWISH MUSEUM

March 19 -April 28, 2015

Reception March 19 | 5-7 p.m.

Those living with mental illness are often defined by their disability rather than their ability. It is through the experience of making and exhibiting art that individuals gain confidence, motivation and self-esteem. Their artwork creates a way to break down barriers and help remove the stigma that can separate those with mental illness from the community at large.

Join us as we celebrate these talented artists. The Traveling Show will be open March 19 - April 28 and will feature art in various mediums, including paintings, photographs, sculpture and fiber arts.

A collaborative show from the artists of...

Shalom House

the Opportunity Alliance

Sweetser
Serving Children and Families since 1928

The mission of the Maine Jewish Museum is to honor the contributions and diversity of Maine's Jewish immigrants in the context of the American experience. Through exhibits and programming, the Museum seeks to build bridges of appreciation and understanding with people of all backgrounds.
