~ Join us for artists' talks ~

Sunday, April 8th, 2pm,
Nanci Kahn

Sunday, April 15th, 2pm,
Paula Gerstenblatt

On April 8th, Nanci Kahn will speak in reference to her unusual exhibition of photographs. The Sanctuary on the third floor is transformed by the creative instillation of "Just A Moment In Time" photographs of the artist's children. These are reproduced on silk-like banners. Also included are photographs of friends' and families' keepsakes with interesting histories.

FULL CIRCLE PAULA GERSTENBLATT

On April 15th, Paula Gerstenblatt will discuss her exhibition "Full Circle," which traces her life, including her departure from New England to California at 17 years old and her return to Maine at 56 years old, plus her extensive travel over the years. Her paintings are figurative and abstract. They merge text and visual images on paper and canvas, including a 30 ft. scroll narrative of a newly divorced young mother grappling with the competing demands of art, work and motherhood. This diverse body of work represents her developmental, geographic, and emotional journey.

Do not miss these inspiring talks.
