We are most sorry to report that the LeeVees benefit concert to support the Maine Jewish Museum and Etz Chaim Synagogue has unfortunately been cancelled due to a conflict in recording schedules which very recently arose. We apologize for any inconvenience this may cause. A full refund will be provided by Brown Paper Tickets for those of you who had already purchased your tickets.

While we will try to reschedule the LeeVees event for next Hanukkah, we will still be holding a Hanukkah concert this year at 4pm on Dec 17th with the Maine Mishagoyim band. Admission is free but donations are most appreciated.

The Maine Mishagoyim will perform a Chanukah Concert on Sunday December 17th at 4pm at the Maine Jewish Museum. Lots of great Hanukkah refreshments (latkes, donuts, etc) and fun (face painting for kids of all ages) will be provided after the show, so please stick around!

Also winners of the Maine Jewish Museum/Etz Chaim 9 days of Hanukkah Raffle will be selected right after the show. You do not need to be present to win. Up to 200 raffle tickets are being sold at $100 each to win one of 11 amazing items. Please see our website for details.

Artifact and Artifice | Jeffrey Ackerman Spiegel Gallery

Jeffrey Ackerman was born in Queens, NY, in 1963. He attended the State University of New York at Albany and Washington University, School of Fine Arts, in St. Louis. Jeffrey lived in New York City from 1984 to 2003, when he moved to Morrill, Maine.

Primarily a painter and sculptor, Jeffrey was also trained in furniture making, wood carving, conservation and restoration. His artwork has been exhibited in New York, Germany, Maine, and Provincetown, MA.

Jeffrey's professional experience includes museum period room installations at the Metropolitan Museum in New York, the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, and the Museum of the City of New York, as well as projects for private residences and collections. From 1995 to 2000 he was director of the Arader Gallery in New York City, specializing in art and antiques from the 16th to the 20th centuries.

Hours and Days | Kathy Weinberg Fineberg Family Community Room

Kathy Weinberg was born in 1962, in Boston, MA. She received a BFA from Washington University, School of Fine Arts, in St. Louis, Mo., then was an assistant printer at Bob Blackburn's Printmaking Workshop in Manhattan. She lived in New York City from 1984 to 2003, spent summers in Maine through childhood, until she moved to Maine full-time in 2003.

Kathy is a painter, sculptor, and printmaker. Her artwork has been exhibited in New York, Germany, Maine, and Provincetown, MA. Her paintings were included in the 2016 CMCA Biennial.

Kathy's profession in antique and architectural restoration includes museum period room installation projects, at the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston, the Metropolitan Museum in New York, the Museum of the City of New York, and private residences and collections. Working with antiques gives her artwork a familiarity with a historical visual language that combines with her personal artistic vision.
