Welcoming the Stranger

Building Understanding through Community Based Art
Multimedia Installation by Jo Israelson

Migrations

Jews have been making Maine their home since colonial times. Learn from Colby students about what has attracted Jews to Maine over the years and how Jews have become Mainers while retaining a strong sense of Jewish identity.

Presented by the Maine Jewish Museum in partnership with Colby College. Jo Israelson was Compagna-Sennett Artist-in-Residence at Colby in Spring 2015, during which time she mentored student sculptors and historians while working on "Welcoming the Stranger."

Sunday, October 18, 3 - 5 pm

Free to the Public

Maine Jewish Museum
267 Congress Street, Portland, ME 04101

Monday - Friday 10am-2pm
Sundays 1pm - 5pm or by appointment

The mission of the Maine Jewish Museum is to honor the contributions and diversity of Maine's Jewish immigrants in the context of the American experience. Through exhibits and programming, the Museum seeks to build bridges of appreciation and understanding with people of all backgrounds.

Join us in celebrating Jewish ART, HISTORY and CULTURE in Maine.
