

Eighth-Night of Chanukah Party and Movie Sunday, December 13, 1-5 p.m.

Please come celebrate the last day of Chanukah this coming Sunday, Dec. 13, at Adas Yoshuron.

We'll begin at 1 p.m. with a special screening of the award-winning family film Belle and Sbastien, a beautiful French film (dubbed) making the Jewish film festival circuit. It's a wonderful story set during World War II, and is suitable for adults and kids. Check it out here:https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3mA_GIJeXjs.

The film will be followed by the Eighth-Night of Chanukah Party at 3 p.m. featuring the community menorah lighting, dreidel spinning, singing, and of course, plates of hot latkes and applesauce.

Bring your menorah and candles, and a plate of latkes or another nosh to share. We'll have the ovens on to keep things warm, and we'll have dreidels, music, gelt, and abundant Chanukah light and joy! Please come, bring your family and friends, and help us celebrate.

Need candles? We have boxes of Chanukah candles for sale at the shul. Call Liz to arrange a time to come by Tuesday (today) or Thursday to pick some up.

Happy Chanukah!
