Learn About Ranked Choice Voting Sept. 28 in Rockland

Finn Melanson from the League of Women Voters of Maine Education Fund will be at Adas Yoshuron Synagogue on Wednesday, Sept. 28, at 6:30 p.m. for a free, educational presentation on Ranked Choice Voting. The event is open to the public.

On November 8, Maine voters will head to the polls to weigh in on a number of referendum questions, including Question 5, which will ask voters whether to replace the current voting system with ranked choice voting for federal and state primary and general elections beginning in 2018.

The presentation will explain how ranked choice voting works, how voters use the ballots, how it compares to our current system, where it is currently used across the state, country, and world, and how voters have responded to its implementation.

Attendees are encouraged to participate in the question and answer session following the presentation. For more information contact Finn Melanson, finn@lwvme.org, or call 207-420-0469 or contact the synagogue, info@adasyoshuron.org; 207-594-4523.
