

CENTER FOR SMALL TOWN JEWISH LIFE

The Sixth Maine Conference for Jewish Life by the Numbers

- 250 participants
- 42 workshops and sessions
- 6 meals (and a cocktail hour) humming with rich conversations
- 4 concurrent Shabbat morning services for our pluralistic community
- 1 weekend brimming with learning, celebration, and Maine Jewish pride

The Maine Conference for Jewish Life has come and gone. We are grateful to every individual in our community, from Maine, and from farther away, who travelled to Waterville to make this conference inspiring and truly remarkable.

Matched Maine Gifts For double the Jewish programming!

From the Maine Conference for Jewish Life to the Fall Shabbaton, a small team of dedicated and visionary staff works to create opportunities for our community to gather in meaningful Jewish spaces. Supporting our staff behind the scenes, a generous and committed community makes the center's work a reality. YOU make our work possible.

With great excitement, we share that the Bill and Joan Alfond Foundation will match gifts from Maine residents up to $17,000 to support our staffing. When you give even $18 or $36, your impact is doubled, and our vision for inclusive, accessible, and vibrant Maine Jewish life becomes a reality. Join us in ushering in another year of center programming and another year of bold, beautiful Jewish life. Give today!

There Are Jews in Maine?

People sometimes tell us that they didn't know there were Jews in Maine —let alone a vibrant, thriving Jewish community. We are changing this conception, and are proud that eJewishPhilanthropy is taking our work to an international audience.
